The Cottages, Heathfields, Uppermill

Situated on a small hamlet and within walking distance of Uppermill High Street is this four double bedroom semi detached house on Heathfields. This is a stone built house with character features including exposed stonework, beams and a wood burning fire in the lounge. The property is located at the end of a private road of just five properties and has a pleasing outlook backing onto a nearby stream. The home is well positioned being a short walk to all village amenities in Uppermill as well as having well regarded schools on your doorstep. In addition to this, just a short journey away are excellent countryside walking routes including Dovestones Reservoir and the Delph Donkey walking trail. Greenfield railway station is accessible and provides regular services to Manchester and Leeds.
